CHIROPRACTIC INFORMED CONSENT TO TREAT

I hereby request and consent to the performance of chiropractic adjustments and other chiropractic procedures, including various modes of physical therapy and diagnostic x-rays, on me (or on the patient named below, for whom I am legally responsible) by the doctor of the chiropractic named below and/or other licensed doctors of chiropractic who now or in the future treat me while employed by, working or associated with serving as back-up for the doctor of chiropractic named below, including those working at the clinic or office listed below or any other office or clinic, whether signatories to this form or not.

I have had an opportunity to discuss with the doctor of chiropractic named below and/or with other office of clinic personnel the nature and purpose of chiropractic adjustments and procedures. I understand that results are not guaranteed.

I understand and am informed that, as in the practice of medicine, in the practice of chiropractic there are some risks to treatment, including, but not limited to, fractures, disc injuries, strokes, dislocations and sprains. I do not expect the doctor to be able to anticipate and explain all risks and complications, and I wish to rely on the doctor to exercise judgment during the course of the procedure which the doctor feels at the time, based upon the facts then known, is in my best interest.

I have read, or have had read to me, the above consent. I have also had an opportunity to ask questions about its content, and by signing below I agree to the above-named procedures. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for any future condition(s) for which I seek treatment.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES – SHORT FORM

Our practice is committed to educating our patients about healthcare issues that affect them. As a result, we are providing you with general information about the Privacy Rule, a federal regulation of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) along with a brief overview of our Notice Of Privacy. Our practice is complying with HIPAA's regulations.

What is the HIPAA and how does the Privacy Rule affect you?
When the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) was passed in August of 1996 this gave the federal government the ability to mandate how healthcare plans, providers, and clearinghouses store and send a patient's personal information as it relates to healthcare. The Privacy Rule was created to protect your rights as a patient of our practice and we are required by law to be compliant with this regulation on April 14, 2003. Under the Privacy Rule you are guaranteed access to your medical records, allowed control over how your protected health information is used and disclosed and allowed to take action if your privacy is compromised by following the practice's policy. Our practice is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your personal information.

What is Individually Identifiable Health Information (IIHI)?
Any health information you provide our practice, including your mailing address. Information that is created and retained by our practice or received by another healthcare provider that relates to treatment, payment and/or that identifies you as an individual.

What is the Notice of Privacy Practice?
Our practice has an official Notice of Privacy Practice posted in our waiting room informing our patients about their rights surrounding the protection of your IHII and our obligations concerning the use and disclosure of your IHII. This notice applies to all records created or retained by our practice. We can update our Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. It will posted in our waiting room and you can ask for a copy of the current notice at any time.

The following categories describe the different ways in which we may use and disclose your IHII:

Treatment	Appointment Reminders	Release of Information to Family/Friends
Payment	Treatment Options	Disclosure Required by Law
Health Care Operations	Health-Related Benefits and Services

The following categories describe unique situations in which we may use or disclose your identifiable health information:

Public Health Risk	Health Oversight Activities	Lawsuits and Similar Proceedings
Deceased Patients	Organ and Tissue Donation	Serious Threats to Health or Safety
Military	National Security Inmates	Worker's Compensation
Law Enforcement	Research

What are your rights concerning your individually Identifiable Health Information (IHII)?
You have rights regarding the IIHI that we maintain about you. In our Notice of Privacy you can view the policies and procedures you will need to follow for the areas listed below.

1. Confidential Communications
2. Requesting Restrictions
3. Inspection and Copies
4. Amendment
5. Accounting of Disclosures
6. Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice
7. Right to File a Complaint
8. Right to Provide an Authorization for Other Uses and Disclosures

If you have any questions regarding this notice or our health information privacy policies, please inform us.
